CAMP BOW WOW OFFERS DOGGY DAY CAMP & OVERNIGHT BOARDING

CAMP BOW WOW, "the land of happy dogs," is a national franchise for daycare/camp and boarding, with the goal of having 75 locations by the end of 2005. Canine campers spend all day at Day Camp, romping and playing indoors and out, with lots of attention from the well-trained staff. Overnight campers get special "campfire" tasty treats each night before they are tucked into their own spacious, comfy and clean Camp Bow Wow cabin. Each cabin includes a comfy bed to curl up on in a climate controlled atmosphere, and campers from the same family can sleep together. Since parents bring the campers' own food, they can be assured that upset tummies are prevented. Treats and special needs/medicines are also administered.

Campers must be spayed or neutered, and current on Rabies, Distemper and Bordatella. They also must socialize well with other campers and be in good health.
